GOLF IN ICELAND

Europe´s most exciting and Does playing golf at midnight surrounded by a lava field sound too strange to be true? Not in Iceland! Midnight golf is available in summer due to Iceland's northerly location, and one-tenth of Iceland's surface is adorned with lava. Sweeping mountain and ocean views characterise Icelandic golf courses, which follow the contours of the landscape, a popular trend in golf course design today.

different golf destination!

Their design pays tribute to the first golf courses in Scotland - the home of golf. To some, it might come as a surprise that there are twice as many golf courses in Iceland than in Scotland - per capita, that is. There are 15 18-hole golf courses and 50 9-hole golf courses in the country available to visitors. Golf in Iceland has gained in popularity by leaps and bounds in recent years to become the nation's second-most popular sport.

There are five 18 hole golf corses within an hour drive from your home base for the week.
Accommodation in private cabins, located in the country site less than an hour drive from Reykjavík.
Fully furnished cabins with electricity, hot and cold water, hot tubs, outdor grill and comfortable beds.

In the Reykjavík area you can choose from another seven 18 hole golf corses.
Close by are good restaurants, interesting sights and activities such as horse rentals, swimming, sport fishing and river rafting.
